Chairman & Senior Principal

Dear Parent,

School life is the most joyous period in your child's life. The ultimate purpose of your child coming to school is for his transformation into a fine citizen who can live with happiness and self-esteem in this modern world.

Parents have to spend more time to talk to the child and listen to him/her. Give the child graded freedom according to age. Do not overprotect the child or prevent him/her from doing things on his/her own. Avoid accusing or abusing the child often. Speak good about the child and appreciate him or her.

Encourage your child to come forward and participate in as many school activities and competitions as possible.

Identify your child's special talents & encourage them. Discipline is organized unselfishness. Develop good sense of discipline in your child.

Help the child to learn to face difficult situations in life from childhood.

Make your child smart in movement, gaze, speech and attire. Make the child a good reader. Keep him/her smiling. Let him/her be happy at all times. So that he/she becomes one of the dearest children of God. Wishing you good luck throughout the year.
